McCANDLESS v. PRATT, LAND COMMISSIONER OF HAWAII.[1]

ERROR TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII.

No. 109. Argued November 6, 9, 1908.—Decided December 21, 1908.

The jurisdiction of this court can only be invoked by a party having a personal interest in the litigation. Smith v. Indiana, 191 U. S. 138.

A writ of error will not lie to review a judgment of the Supreme Court of Hawaii, dismissing the bill in a suit brought by a taxpayer to enjoin the land commissioner from an alleged unauthorized use of public lands where it does not appear that complainant would be personally injured by the threatened use.

[1] Original docket title, McCandless v. Carter, Governor of Hawaii.
